FEBRUARY 2008

To the TeresaFans emailing list:

Welcome to the February 2008 Teresa Brewer Center! The monthly update to the website is now available online.

New for February:

- Congratulations to Teresa and to you – her fans – for voting Teresa Brewer into the Hit Parade Hall of Fame for 2007! Thank you for your votes and support! See NEWS or visit the HOME page for more.
- Help Remember Teresa at the Grammys! A number of fans have contacted the TBC to ask if Teresa will be remembered and honored at the 2008/50th Annual Grammy Awards presentation (scheduled for Feb 10.) We don't know. Though time is short, we'd urge fans to contact the Recording Academy and encourage them to remember Teresa's life and contributions to the industry during the broadcast.

Sample text for fan messages to the Grammys:

Please mention and honor the memory of Teresa Brewer at the upcoming 50th Anniversary Grammy Awards! Teresa had many, many hits from 1950 through 1961 -- some of which went gold, many of them making it to the top ten on the hit parade -- should be stressed. Also, she had a successful resurgence in her singing career in the 1970s, '80s and '90s, recording and performing with such eminent musicians as Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Wynton Marsalis, Dizzy Gillespie, Earl Fatha Hines and Stephane Grappelli. She co-hosted two music series on television, one with Mel Torme, the other with Tony Bennett, and starred in the Paramount Pictures musical, "Those Redheads from Seattle." Much more about Teresa is available at the Teresa Brewer Center website at www.teresafans.org. Thank you!

- As announced in January, several new images have been added to the GALLERY for 2008. They include pictures of Teresa as a child, a candid of Teresa with a soldier, and a few photos from Teresa's visits to her hometown of Toledo, Ohio, USA. See NEWS or visit the GALLERY to view the new images.
